"The National Merit® Scholarship Program is an academic competition for recognition and scholarships that began in 1955. High school students enter the National Merit Program by taking the Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT®)—a test which serves as an initial screen of approximately 1.5 million entrants each year—and by meeting published program entry/participation requirements." - From Nationalmerit.org

Brennan has advanced to finalist standing in the National Merit Scholarship Program for the year 2013. He has done so by demonstrating distinguished performance for future academic accomplishment. There are annually 1.5 MILLION entrants. We wish Brennan well as his academic career advances.
